Eternal and Infinite Spirit

We join with you in this special way
To exchange the thoughts and feelings
Of those of the higher realms of life
To instill a deeper sense of our worth
For the benefit of we and mother earth

Acknowledgements

To my lovely wife Sylvie who has worked so tirelessly in editing this hugely important manuscript, this book is more hers than mine. An absolute credit to her spirituality and growing knowledge of all things, as the individual spirit she is. Her unfailing loyalty and stoicism when our paths looked so bare show her true depth of courage of life.

I will always be guided by her loving wisdom.

For those who have known us in our past in any way, this is for you. We all touch each others lives in some way and become what we are through meetings good and bad. All precious in our minds those valid and pure thoughts, our love and prayers are with you. For our mums and families for being so special and always being there for us and for our dads who remain ever close by and continue to look on us with loving care.

Our appreciation goes to all of you who took the time to send us questions for this book.

We are so grateful to Simon Warwick-Smith and Cierra Trenery, for showing us another way forward and for their invaluable help in the production of this title.

Lastly, with our prayers to the spirit people: friends always in our hearts and in our every breath and thought of life. In all ways we remain at your service.

Many will say
Without war and negativity love cannot come
Without hate and fear
No one may learn how positivity may feel
In the subject of grace
With each step we take
We bring value or curse to our form.

Ancestors come and go
And often the foulest animals are best remembered.
But to the individual
The greatest pangs are those of love
That stir the breast of every spirit
In any realm.

We may make for conscience
What little walks we have
But try and try again
To make best with what we are given
To show the true dawning light of God
In our favor.

Foreword

hen Gregory asked me to set aside a regular time on a weekly basis to narrate and record a new title for the White Cloud Group, little did I know that it would be so awesome in content. In a joint effort, Gregory is always guided and helped by the many others of the group, but for this book, he explained that other members wanted the chance to speak for themselves occasionally, for the experience. As a consequence, at times the diction and dialect may be a little different, as they all have their own mannerisms and ways of expression.

He went on to say that The Soul Group: Its Meaning, Magic and Imagery, was going to be a rather more complex and intense subject regarding our evolution, and of how individuals see themselves and their placement within the hierarchy of species. He also said that at the end of the book there was to be a question and answer section and asked me to collate some questions relating to this subject as it was not just a wish for the spirit team to come and lecture in this area, but with a desire for communication and discourse on it, so that they may show how we may come to such conclusions of life.

I subsequently sent out emails and posted it on our website, asking if anyone had any questions for Gregory and the White Cloud Group regarding this subject. I also used some questions and answers that I thought were relevant, which had come up in interactive presentations with live audiences.

You may or may not be surprised to find that unless one is of a scientific mind (which I am not) then it's actually not that easy trying to think of a question on such a huge subject. There is obviously so much you know you don't know, but when it comes down to formulating it and where to begin, it is a little overwhelming. If you don't realize the answers that are possible then you won't know to ask the right question to get to that conclusion!

It really made me comprehend just how limited we are through only having the vision and tools of access of our human minds. I also appreciate how difficult it must be for spirit to try to explain or describe events, places, substances, energy's and vision etc, which are only in the spirit realms, when we cannot even imagine it or perceive its possibility. Not to mention the handicap of only having the use of our language and vocabulary with which to do this.

I hope that although the nature of this book is deep it is easy to understand even through this barrier of the human brain. I guess it's all about stretching the mind. I can assure you that if the knowledge the spirit team is trying to bring to the world were of a complicated nature and aimed only at the intellectual they would not have picked Mick and I to deliver the message on their behalf.

Foreword

There will be a sequel to The Soul Group: Its Meaning, Magic and Imagery, for the spirit team want to come and tell us what we need to know when we need to know it and not just throw all of these facts at us when we are either not ready or not able to collate it. As Gregory says, there will be many questions and perhaps those that are felt unfulfilled in their answer must be re-asked again and again, until satisfaction is understood.

Gregory Haye
and the White Cloud Group.

 Gregory Haye is the spirit guide who speaks through deep trance medium Mick Avery, and he is an individual who has brought much communication from the White Cloud Group of which he is the main spokesperson. He had his earthly existence in the early eighteenth century being born in 1705, and lived near the village of Swaffham, Norfolk, England. He had a short and hard life being of poor stock and was run over and killed by a coach and horses when he was only eighteen and a half years old. Since being in the spirit realm he has chosen to be of service and has striven to build on his education and knowledge of all that is. Apart from his work as Mick's guide and the main control and spokesperson with the White Cloud Group, Gregory assists those who have just recently passed over onto the next step of their journey. He shows them how to come to terms with their new environment and helps them to adjust and make progress within their understanding.

White Cloud is the ‘Shining One’ who is the instigator and guiding force for the group. He had an earthly life many hundreds of years ago and was a native American Indian of much notoriety when he was on the earth. However, he and the others of the group, many of whom were also of some eminence, would rather they were viewed or judged by the content of their work and not by who they were.

All of the members of the White Cloud Group have had an earthly existence at some point in time, along with many other experiences on other worlds also. They don’t like to dwell on the lives they had here in a past tense for they come with the knowledge and understanding they are able to help us with now. They are not tied to the earth and choose to come only for our benefit, for no other reason than a wish to help us and save our planet.
